"You see,' 'he is making the birds our schoolmasters and teachers. It is a great and abiding disgrace to us that in the Gospel a helpless sparrow should become a theologian and a preacher to the wisest of men. We have as many teachers and preachers, as there are little birds in the air. Whenever you listen to a nightingale, therefore, you are listening to an excellent preacher ... It is as if he were saying "I prefer to be in the Lord's kitchen. He has made heaven and earth, and he himself is the cook and the host. Every day he feeds and nourishes innumerable little birds out of his hand."

- Martin Luther, Sermon on the Mount

17. And only when we 1. Page 1

And only when we have made our choice—for heavenly treasure, for light, for God—therefore I tell you this is how you must go on to behave: do not be anxious about your life ... nor about your body ... But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness (25, 33). In other words, our basic choice of which of two masters we intend to serve will radically affect our attitude to both.

And only when we have made our choice—for heavenly treasure, for light, for God—therefore I tell you this is how you must go on to behave: do not be anxious about your life ... nor about your body ... But seek

We shall not be anxious about the one (for we have rejected it), but concentrate our mind and energy on the other (for we have chosen him) we shall refuse to become engrossed in our own concerns, but instead seek first the concerns of God.

- John Stott. The Message of the Sermon on the Mount (The Bible Speaks Today Series)
InterVarsity Press. Kindle Edition.

We shall not be anxious about the one (for we have rejected it), but concentrate our mind and energy on the other (for we have chosen him); we shall refuse to become engrossed in our own concerns, but instead

"Don't fret or worry. Instead of worrying, pray. Let petitions and praises shape your worries into prayers, letting God know your concerns. ⁷Before you know it, a sense of God's wholeness, everything coming together for good, will come and settle you down. It's wonderful what happens when Christ displaces worry at the center of your life.
