"But, for most of us, the problem is not that we are too eager to ask for the wrong things. The problem is that we are not eager enough to ask for the right things."
- Tom Wright, Matthew for Everyone

"This almost universal human practice is the subject of verses 1-6, and after his brief but incisive treatment of it, he then shows us a truly effective and gracious way of caring for and helping the people we love in verses 7-12.

It is the way of the request, of asking, which naturally progresses into kingdom praying. It is a way that actually works, because it draws people into the kingdom rather than into the web of our own devises and plans

We should note that the ask-seek-knock teaching first applies to our approach to others, not to prayer to God. ... Asking is indeed the great law of the spiritual world through which things are accomplished in cooperation with God and yet in harmony with the freedom and worth of every individual."

- Dallas Willard, Divine Conspiracy
