"The fruit of the good tree is obedience, which comes only from the kind of person we have come to be (the "inside" of the tree) in his fellowship. The wolf in sheep's clothing is the one who tries to fake discipleship by outward deeds. But then inward realities overwhelm him or her."

11. John 9:39-41 (NIV 1. John 9:39-41

39Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that the blind will see and those who see will become blind." 40Some Pharisees who were with him heard him say this and asked, "What? Are we blind too?" 41Jesus said, "If you were blind, you would not be guilty of sin; but now that you claim you can see, your guilt remains."

They will come in and go out, and find pasture. 10The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full."

21"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?' 23Then I will tell them plainly, 'I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!'"

"The Lord does not deny any of their claims, and neither should we. We may therefore expect that even in our own day there are many (7:22) people who use the right language and who have performed spiritual wonders in Jesus's name, but who are not genuine disciples. One of the most tragic ingredients to this scenario is the way these people take themselves to be genuine believers. They clearly expect admission to the consummated kingdom."

"Obedience is neglected. The pressure of the spectacular has excluded the stability of growing conformity to the Father's will. Because he seems to be getting results, immediate results, spectacular results, he feels he is close to the center of true religion. His success indices are soaring; God must be blessing him. Surely God will understand and sympathize if there is not always enough time for prayer, self-examination, or conscious repentance."
